Dear Ma—

As for the letter from the Murray Reseach Center, instead of destroying it, please send it on to me. I'm certainly not going to give them any help, but I'd be curious to know what they have to say. Actually I'm quite pleased that they seem so anxious to secure my ~~co~~ cooperation, because that gives me the pleasure of denying it to them.

By the way Norm Schoer sent me that photograph, and you'll probably be pleased to know that I did pick it up at the post office. I happended to be going to Town at that time anyway, so I figured I might well pick up the package and save you a possible embarrassment. I'm not going to send him a thank-you note, because I don't want to encourage any correspondence from him. If you like, next time you see him you can convey my thanks to him. Not that I particularly want to thank him, but since social amenities seem to be important to you I thought you might want to convey my thanks to him.

As for your suggestion of a visit — either your coming here or my going there — I'll have to think it over, and will give you my answer at some later time.

— Ted
